

RENTAL OF SPACIOUS BUSINESS SPACE IN THE CITY

 Pula

 5,000 €
12 €/m²

Pula is a historic city in southern Istria, known for its rich cultural heritage and attractive coastline. Its most recognizable symbol is the Pula Arena, one of the best-preserved Roman amphitheatres. The city offers an excellent combination of tourism, business opportunities and quality of life, with good transport connections and developed infrastructure.

The offer includes an extremely functional and spacious business premises with a total area of 400 m², located in a busy and easily accessible city location, ideal for the development of various business activities. The space is organized in such a way that it includes a basement of 100 m² and the main part of 300 m², which allows for an excellent distribution between the working, storage and office areas. Thanks to the secured entrance for larger vehicles, the space is particularly suitable for activities that require logistical accessibility, such as distribution, service, storage or production.

The interior of the space is adapted to everyday business and includes a toilet and kitchen, which further contributes to the comfort of employees. The heating and air conditioning system ensures a pleasant working temperature throughout the year.

The flooring has been carefully selected according to the purpose of the space – the office area is covered with laminate flooring that provides warmth and a professional look, while the rest of the space is covered with ceramic tiles, which are wear-resistant and easy to maintain.

A great advantage of this space is its location with high traffic, which ensures excellent visibility and accessibility, which is key to successful business. This office space represents an excellent opportunity for companies looking for a combination of size, functionality and strategic position.
