7,853 €/m²

Rovinj, the pearl of the Istrian peninsula, is one of the most charming towns on the Adriatic. Its historic core with narrow cobbled streets, picturesque houses and the imposing Church of St. Euphemia exudes an authentic Mediterranean spirit. Located on the western coast of Istria, Rovinj offers crystal clear sea, beautiful beaches and numerous islands surrounding it. The city is known for its superb gastronomy, art scene and unique atmosphere that attracts visitors from all over the world. Its combination of rich history, natural beauty and luxury offers makes it a perfect holiday destination, but also a prestigious place to live and invest.

Located in the heart of Rovinj, this exceptional property is a rarity on the market. It is two floors within a historic building from around 1700, known for its exceptional quality of construction. The total area of approximately 196 m² consists of three apartments - one spacious apartment of 101 m² and two smaller ones, each of 45 m².

The apartments were completely renovated in 2018, retaining authentic elements and adding modern amenities for maximum comfort. Heating is provided by inverter air conditioners, with additional underfloor heating in the apartment on the third floor. New, high-quality wooden joinery ensures excellent insulation, while the floors made of a combination of parquet and polished wood further emphasize the warmth of the space.

What makes this property special is its location - a real first row to the sea, in the literal sense of the word, since the building literally touches the sea. This position is extremely rare on the market and provides a unique experience of living right on the coast. The property can also be purchased by taking over the company under which it is managed, which further facilitates the purchase process and opens up opportunities for investors.
