Pula

348,500 €
3,319 €/m^2

Pula is not only a city of history and the sea, but also a place where everyday life takes place more slowly, with better quality and with moderation. The combination of Mediterranean spirit, urban infrastructure and proximity to nature makes it an ideal choice for family life, but also for a long-term smart investment. This modern new building is located in such an environment, designed with a clear goal - to offer comfort, functionality and long-term value.

On the 2nd floor of a modern building there is a three-bedroom apartment with a total area of 105.03 m^{2,} of which 92.07 m^2 is indoor living space, while an additional 12.96 m2 belong to two covered terraces. The apartment is extremely thoughtfully arranged and consists of a spacious entrance area / hallway, separate kitchen, large and bright living room, 3 comfortable bedrooms, even 3 bathrooms, which is a rarity and a great advantage in everyday life, an additional hallway connecting the private part of the apartment and two covered terraces, ideal for morning coffee or evening relaxation.

The layout of the apartment clearly separates the living and sleeping areas, ensuring privacy, peace and functionality, ideal for a family, but also for those who simply want more space without compromise.

The apartment is built with an emphasis on durability and modern living standards. The floors are covered with high-quality ceramic tiles of modern design, all openings have electric shutters, PVC joinery and good sound and thermal insulation. The offer is further enriched by underfloor heating for maximum comfort throughout the year and top-quality air conditioning units for heating and cooling. Every detail has been selected with the aim of long-term comfort and reducing future maintenance costs.

Why is this a top offer?

- new construction with a clear quality standard
- a rare three-bedroom apartment with three bathrooms
- functional and large living space
- two terraces
- an excellent ratio of square footage, layout and quality
- a property that works equally well for living and as an investment
