 245,000 €
4,900 €/m<sup>2</sup>

Pula is the largest city in Istria, located in the south of the peninsula along the Adriatic Sea. It is known for its rich history dating back to ancient times, especially for Roman monuments such as the Arena - one of the best preserved Roman amphitheatres in the world. The center of Pula exudes a combination of Roman heritage, Venetian architecture and Mediterranean atmosphere, with narrow stone streets, squares, cafes and sea views. Today, Pula is an important cultural and tourist center, known for its festivals, gastronomy and mild climate.

In the very center of the city, a charming, completely renovated apartment on the 2nd floor is for sale. The apartment consists of two comfortable bedrooms, a bright living room connected to the kitchen and a bathroom. It has been renovated with a lot of attention and love for details, which is clearly visible from every corner of the space. The property is equipped with PVC joinery and the floors are covered with quality parquet. Every element of the decoration has been carefully chosen to provide the apartment with warmth, functionality and a pleasant feeling of home. The location is extremely attractive - in the immediate vicinity of the market and all the amenities needed for a quality and comfortable city life (shops, cafes, restaurants, public transport).

Thanks to its position and layout, the apartment represents an excellent opportunity not only for a comfortable life in the city center, but also as an excellent investment for tourist rental.
